

VIRTUAL SUNDAY SCHOOL

Handel's Messiah

Sunday Mornings at 11:00
Starting November 8th*

This will be a 5-week series. We will be listening to Handel's Messiah performed by The Brandenburg Consort and the Choir of King's College Cambridge. It will encompass all 3 parts which include (1) Christ's Birth and Its Foretelling; (2) Christ's Passion and Resurrection; and (3) Christ's Eternal Reign. The Lyrics (all Scripture) will be shown as the performance is played. The movements will each be followed with a brief quote on the relevant Scriptural passage by various Christian writers. As we approach the Advent season Handel's Messiah proclaims Christ as Lord and Savior of the world.

How to Access Class Online

We will be meeting via a Zoom video conference. You may download Zoom to your computer at this website. The software is free and you do not need to create an account:

https://zoom.us/download#client_4meeting

You may also download Zoom to your mobile device by visiting the App store of your device. Click on this link (or copy/paste) to take you to the class:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/9648268248?pwd=ZkxldHFlcjZvY3RuNlJDK2owRnVydz09>

It is suggested you enter 5-10 minutes before the class starts at 12:00.

You can also join by phone by calling +1 (669) 900-6833 and entering ID: 964 826 8248. Follow instructions to sign in. Have the ID# handy to enter. When prompted for password just wait and then enter the pound sign (#) when prompted.

Any questions contact John or Linda Sunkel at 619-727-4338

*Please note we will not be meeting on November 29

George Frederic Handel composed the music for the Messiah in 1741 over a period of 24 days. His friend, Charles Jennens provided the lyrics taken from 14 books of the Bible, primarily Isaiah, Psalms, Paul's letters, and Revelation. The first performance was held in Dublin Ireland on April 13, 1742.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 9:6