Isaiah has been described as the fifth gospel because it is so full of the birth, life, death, resurrection, ascension and return of the LORD Jesus Christ. Constantly quoted by Jesus and His apostles, Isaiah provides so much of the theological foundation for the New Testament. In the temple, Isaiah was confronted with the glory of King Jesus, enthroned over all. He lived through the reigns of four different earthly kings, but he had gazed on that earth-shattering glory of the King of kings. Yet, that awesome King of glory, worshiped by the greatest angelic creatures, is Immanuel, born of a human woman. These studies will open our minds and hearts as the glory of Jesus shines so brightly.

*But those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength.
They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint*

Isaiah 40:31
