

VIRTUAL SUNDAY SCHOOL

Book of Phillipians

Sunday Mornings at 11:00

Starting September 27th

We will be using the series Book by Book for a 6-week study on the book of Philippians. Each session will include a 15 minute video with discussion afterwards. Joni Eareckson Tada, a quadriplegic since 1967, is founder of Joni and Friends, a ministry that communicates the Gospel and equips churches worldwide to evangelize people affected by disability. Richard Bewes is a rector of All Souls Church, Langham Place, London and a well-known writer and broadcaster. Paul Blackham from Lancashire, England, is a theologian and curate at All Souls Church in London.

How to Access Class Online

We will be meeting via a Zoom video conference. You may download Zoom to your computer at this website. The software is free and you do not need to create an account:

The letter of Philippians was written by Paul while he was in prison in Rome in about AD 63, but there is no bitterness or disillusionment here. In this letter, Paul opens his heart to us, showing us the secret to real contentment. The letter speaks of fellowship in the sufferings of Jesus, and yet there is no book of the Bible so full of joy.

And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
